POLICE END CHINESE GAMES

No Oriental Establishment Now Runs in City

Periodical Aid for City Treasury Thing of Past

All the Chinese lottery houses in Oakland are closed and have been closed for several days. This is the first time in many years that such a condition has obtained.

The closing of the lottery houses was brought about with the greatest ease. Chief of Police William F. Woods issued an order to Captain J. F. Lynch of the Central police station to "close 'em up." Captain Lynch sent word to the Chinese lottery companies that the chief meant business and that they would have to close. Within forty-eight hours not a lottery was running, and even the oldest and most trusted patron could not obtain admission to his favorite resort to mark his little ticket.

Prior to the issuance of the new order there were twenty-five Chinese lottery houses and fifteen Chinese clubs running in the Chinese district of Oakland. From these the city received a considerable revenue, as the custom has been for many years to raid the lottery houses with regularity. The Chinese regularly forfeited $300 a ball for each time they were arrested. In a year this made up a large percentage of the Police Court receipts in fines and forfeitures.

Of the thirty-nine lottery resorts and clubs where fatten pigwog and other Chinese games were played not one is open today. Chief Woods declares that they will not be permitted to reopen.

With the change in policy on the part of the authorities there has come a change in the attitude of the Chinese. They formerly forfeited bail with a certain Chinese nonchalance, whether the police had a case that would hold water from a legal point of view or not. Each lottery house has its turn in contributing to the city treasury.

NOW PLAN TO FIGHT.
The Chinese arrested since Woods has become chief have decided to fight the cases against them. They have pleaded not guilty and asked trial by jury and it is probable that Chinese gambling cases will clog the Police Court calendars for some time to come.

A peculiar condition arose in connection with one of these cases. Ah Chung, 348 Second street, was arrested last week for selling lottery tickets on a warrant. The warrant was issued last January. It seems that evidence was collected last January against numerous Chinese lotteries with a view to making the routine arrests in regular order. About thirty complaints were sworn to and warrants issued. The warrant against Ah Chung's lottery seller about once a week, or sometimes oftener, using one of these warrants. It was Ah Chung's turn last week.

But Ah Chung did not act according to schedule. He pleaded not guilty and asked for jury trial. The date of trial has been set for July 23 and the Chinese will be represented by Attorney Thomas Bradley. A number of other trials are set down on the court calendar for August 5, 10, 11 and 12. Attorney Lin S. Church will appear for some of these.

The police last night arrested Ah Gee, 733 Webster street, on a charge of gambling. He was released on $100 bail. With him the police arrested seventeen Chinese as players. Ah Gee being booked as game keeper. Dominoes and chips, used in the Chinese game being played, were seized by the police.

Council in Tiff Over Miller

LEO FRANK'S CONDITION SERIOUS

YACHTSMEN ARE CAST ADRIFT NEAR-TRAGEDY UPON BAY WOMEN HELP RESCUE MEN

Mishaps, one after another, during a day of harrowing experiences which all but included tragedy beset a yachting party of 12 well-known Oakland, Alameda and Hayward men and women, and only ended at 2 o'clock this morning when they were safely landed at the Alameda Boat Club wharf, shivering, bedraggled and nearly famished after spending the night marooned on the mud banks of the bay.

Attorney Joseph Lawrence, Werner P. Cooper and Charles Schneider, the latter part owner of the yacht Edna, with Commodore Schroder, nearly lost their lives after clinging to an overturned skiff in which they had gone swimming while the yacht was becalmed five miles from the San Mateo county shore.

William Zambirsky and James E. O'Brien of San Leandro, and Commodore Schroder, the three other men in the yachting party, after frantic work for an hour, succeeded in maneuvering their helpless craft to a position from which they were able to rescue Lawrence, Schneider and Cooper, when the three were all but exhausted, and about to relinquish their holds upon the overturned skiff.

WOMEN GIVE HELP.
The women in the party, whose names have been modestly withheld by the others, behaved in heroic fashion, lending their aid wherever possible and cheering and encouraging those in peril and those who were on the verge of nervous breakdown when they reached their homes this morning. Attorney Lawrence and the two other men are suffering today from their submersion, having become chilled to the bone when they took their premature dip in the brine.

Fire threatened to destroy a small gasoline launch which arrived shortly after the rescue of the men in the water and took the Edna in tow. The skiff was recovered and the launch, trailing behind the launch, headed for home.

But the Ancient Mariner had nothing to fear for experience encountered and to be encountered again. Before they had proceeded more than a mile, the launch ran out of gasoline. Then the wind came up

T. R. Is Taciturn, Except to "Leaders"
SEATTLE, July 19.—Disturbingly cryptic in his statements, refusing to cast even the smallest pebble into a too placid political pool, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt took leave of Seattle today, after an overnight stay, and continued his journey to San Francisco.

Colonel Roosevelt held his most important political conference, so far as local party politics is concerned, early today, when he was closeted for a few minutes with the Senator from Indiana, as Polinder has announced his return to the Republican party, the probable nature of the conversation between him and the Bull Moose chieftain is a matter of much speculation.

Arriving last night by boat from Vancouver, Colonel Roosevelt, with Mrs. Roosevelt and his secretary, was met by a delegation of Progressives and escorted to the hotel. After a short public reception Roosevelt went into a conference with five local political leaders. To them he is said to have outlined his 1916 plans.

Bryan Mentioned in Trial by Defendant
LOS ANGELES, July 19.—W. J. Bryan, former Secretary of State, was mentioned today as a contributor to the Los Angeles investment company, eleven former officers of which are on trial here in the United States district court on charges of having used the mails in a scheme to defraud. The defendants are officers of a company incorporated for $5,000,000.

Ernest Inghill, who was assistant to President Charles A. Elder, one of the defendants, was asked by an attorney for the defense who were the contributors to the fund.

"W. J. Bryan was one," replied Inghill, in objection to United States District Attorney Schooner was sustained by Judge Heister, who remarked:

"My Bryan is not on trial in this case. He has troubles of his own."

Floods Receding, But Still Cause Hardship
WASHINGTON, July 19.—Flood waters in China are receding but distress among the population of the inundated district is increasing, according to advice to the navy department today from Captain Hough of the gunboat Washington, now at Shanghai, China. Captain Hough's message said:

"Water receding is causing distress. Loss of life among Chinese from fire, flood and lack of food. Brought rice from Hong Kong. Confederate American and British flags flying. No Chinese money in circulation here, also up river."

BERLIN TO HEAR FINAL DEMANDS OF U. S. IN NOTE

President and Lansing in Conference to Frame Unequivocal Reply to German Message
CABINET SEES DRAFT TUESDAY

WASHINGTON, July 19.—President Wilson and Secretary Lansing discussed in detail today a draft of the note to be sent to Germany this week informing the imperial government what the United States will do if there is further violation of American rights on the high seas.

The return of President Wilson from Cornish, New Hampshire, gave Secretary Lansing his first opportunity to confer on the policy to be followed as the result of Germany's failure to satisfy the American demands made in the note of June 9th.

It was understood that the president and Mr. Lansing found that they had reached about the same conclusion—that the next communication to Germany will be of a definite character, making unmistakably clear that the United States cannot be expected to remain passive in the event of another attack on an unarmed and unresisting ship with a loss of Americans.

The note, it is now practically agreed, will announce to Germany the intention of the United States to assert its rights on the high seas in accordance with international law.

There probably will be little or no discussion on the principles treated already at length in previous notes.

Prompt action in dispatching the note was the general forecast.

Tomorrow it will be submitted by the President to the cabinet and possibly may be revised again at Friday's meeting.

In official quarters it was agreed that the communication will be of its way to Berlin by Saturday.

Although it is not certain whether reference will be made to the attack on the Cunard liner Orduna, it is known that the incident has been a subject of discussion in the cabinet. The next communication would take into consideration that German submarine commanders in actual practice were conforming to the rules of international law, irrespective of details of the Orduna attack.

The vessel carrying Americans bound to the United States and transporting no contraband, was attacked without warning impressed high officials that German submarine warfare held forth many hazards for Americans traveling the high seas "on lawful errands."

Secretary Lansing was at the White House for more than an hour. While he had been in frequent communication with the President since the latter went to Cornish, N. H., it is understood that he did not obtain the President's final decision as to how the position of the United States should be stated in the next note.

The President is said to have become convinced that the next communication to Germany must point in much more emphatic terms than have heretofore been used the earnest intention of the American government not to surrender any of its rights.

BRITISH CRITICISE ENEMY.
By Associated Press.
LONDON, July 19.—The morning newspapers, commenting on the judgment of the court of inquiry into the Lusitania disaster and the attack by a German submarine on the Cunard line steamer Orduna, characterized the latter as proving that Germany cares nothing for the American protests against Germany's submarine warfare. The Daily Telegraph, in an editorial, says:

"We have in this incident the confession by the enemy that, in spite of all protests from neutral countries and protests on his part in the case of the Lusitania, he is unrepenting. Germany has advertised once more that she recognizes no law of God or man."

The Daily Graphic in an editorial says:

"This latest outrage may help to convince the American people that the German government attaches no weight to the weight to President Wilson's dispatches than to any other scraps of paper."

Bids His Family Adieu; Disappears
SEARCH is being made by the police for Anthony J. Williams, a clerk in a San Leandro bank, who disappeared from his home at 85 Ninth street this morning, leaving a note that he was despondent and "no longer desired to be a burden on his people."

Williams has been ill for several weeks. He left the following note:

"My dear folks: Forgive me, but I am feeling awful. I don't want to be a burden upon you. Again, goodbye."

Williams is 37 years of age, 5 feet, 11 inches in height and weighs 170 pounds. He was dressed in a dark blue suit and black tie when he disappeared.

"I think that the original ordinance is better. It will permit larger powers and a more extensive investigation."

"I invite criticism at all times as to the conduct of my department," declared Bacon's heatedly. "But I am opposed to any person being appointed to investigate my department, when I know beforehand that that person is antagonistic to me and is also utterly incompetent. I know already what the report is going to be, as anybody could who knows Miller's attitude towards me. So far as that is concerned, any competent man could go over my department."

WAR CRAFT STRUCK BY TORPEDO

Two Austrian Submarines Are Reported Lost in Adriatic

Germans Under Hindenburg Continue Poland Drive

By Associated Press.
BERLIN, June 9, by wireless to Sarville.—The following official communication was received here today from Vienna, under date of July 18:

"An Austrian submarine this morning torpedoed and sank, south of Ragusa, the Italian cruiser Giuseppe Garibaldi. The cruiser foundered within 15 minutes."

The Giuseppe Garibaldi was an armored cruiser which displaced 7234 tons. She was 344 feet long and was laid down in 1898. Her complement was 550 men. She was armed with one 10-inch, two 8-inch, fourteen 6-inch and ten 3-inch guns.

Ragusa is a fortified seaport of Austria-Hungary, in Dalmatia, on a peninsula of the Adriatic sea, thirty-eight miles northwest of Cattaro.

SUBMARINES REPORTED LOST
By Associated Press.
PARIS, July 19, 5:05 a. m.—A telegram from a Rome news agency says that a refugee who has reached Rome from Pola, the Austrian naval base, reports that two Austrian submarines which left to reconnoiter the Italian coast have not returned and are believed to have been lost. One of the submarines had a crew of twenty and the other a crew of forty. Their supplies of gasoline were sufficient for only four days.

TURKS KILL 42,434 ALLIES
By Associated Press.
LONDON, July 19, 3:25 p. m.—The total casualties of the Dardanelles expeditionary force to date in killed, wounded and missing have been 42,434 officers and men, Premier Asquith told the House of Commons today. The total includes both naval and military branches of the service.

ISSUE NOW HANGS IN EAST
By Associated Press.
LONDON, July 19, 12:35 p. m.—Attention is now centered on the gigantic operations in the eastern field of war, where fighting is in full swing in nearly every section of the Russian line from the Baltic to the Black Sea.

General von Buelow, who was on the left of General von Kluck in the first invasion of France, now commands the extreme left of the German advance toward Riga, which is being conducted by cavalry on a scale exceeding anything heretofore during the war. Berlin claims a steady advance and Parnograd concedes an advance, after the Russian forces had made a stubborn contest.

On von Buelow's right is General von Eichhorn, who probably is held up by the great Russian fortress of Osowetz. On von Eichhorn's right is General von Gallwitz, whose name appears for the first time in large operations. After capturing Pryanyan, he is now pressing a German attack on the Narva river and its tributaries.

NEW LUBIN ATTACK.
On the famous Rawlin and Bura lines there is comparative quiet, which is also reflected on the south side of Warsaw, against the southeast the movement against Lubin, which was temporarily checked, is again in full swing.

The Russians must fight a desperate battle for the possession of Warsaw or abandon all of Poland. The Germans are considerably unconvinced to prefer the last issue, hence the Russians, in the opinion of many military observers, are likely to attempt a complete withdrawal with their armies intact. These tremendous activities by the Germans in the east suggest that they have little reserve left to devote to the western campaign, which offers the entire allies a respite, either for the completion of munitions supplies or a concerted attempt to recapture Ypres.

Another view holds that the best strategy is to wait until the German offensive is exhausted and then strike.

A German officer said there were good reasons to think that the best of the Austrians would be conquered soon.

Salandra Predicts Conquest of Isonzo
By Associated Press.
ROME, July 19, via Paris.—"I don't think," said the Italian minister of war, General Salandra, who on Saturday was appointed a member of the cabinet without portfolio, returned from the front yesterday with the news that the Italian army had captured the town of Gorizia, which was the first step in the conquest of the Isonzo.

Salandra's appointment was a surprise, as he had been expected to be named as minister of war.

ANOTHER IN CASE.
Another woman who is believed to have been the wife of the deceased, Mrs. Medbury, is now in the hands of the law. She is being held in custody, and her fate is yet to be determined. The court has granted her a bond of $100,000, which will enable her to take possession of the estate. The estate is valued at $1,000,000. Mrs. Medbury is now the owner of the estate.

Woman Jailed After Death of Husband
By Associated Press.
SPOKANE, Wash., July 19.—Mrs. Anna Knievsky, 22 years old, was today in jail here last night in connection with the death of her husband, John Knievsky, 30, a wrestler, who died of convulsions at Elk, Wash., Friday. Mrs. Knievsky is said to have made a dying statement to Coroner M. B. Grieve accusing his wife of having given him a deadly poison. Knievsky was a native of Poland, and was married at Napavine, near Chehalis, Wash., last January.

Mrs. Knievsky showed no emotion when she was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Sam Elick. She said she had not poisoned her husband, but she had given him a deadly poison. She was arrested at the railroad station at Elk, Wash., when she was returning to her home.

Church Trustee Canes Continuous Music Man
By Associated Press.
VENICE, Cal., July 19.—Objection to the continuous strains of a pipe organ in a concession adjoining his apartment house is said to have prompted C. C. Melton, church trustee, to attack Col. T. W. Prior, proprietor of the concession.

Melton was released today on bonds on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder. Prior is alleged to have beaten Melton with a cane, and the latter was leaving the concession late last night.

Melton for some time has endeavored to have the authorities restrain Prior from use of the organ. The police have been unable to do so.

TARDILY TOLD, POLICE
SEEK RED-HAIRED THIEF
A pickpocket was seen in the act of robbing a passenger on a Richmond car in Emeryville last night, and was forced by the crew of the car to return a purse containing $50. The conductor and motorman then wisely decided to protect the passenger from the thief. The police were notified later that the pickpocket and victim had by that time become merged with the thousands of people in the city.

The only description obtained of the thief was that he was a red-head. Mrs. C. E. Bergfeld, 521 First-street, reported that during the past two weeks her home was entered and jewelry valued at $100 stolen.

A burglar who attempted to enter the home of Mrs. J. R. Burnham, 108 Lake street, was frightened away early yesterday by the arrival of Miss Emma Kadlec, a maid employed by the Burnhams. The burglar was seen by the maid as he was about to enter the house.

FRESNO WOMAN MISSING.
The police have been asked to assist in the search for Sarah K. Smith, 1114 1/2 street, Fresno, who came to Oakland several weeks ago, and who has not been heard from by her relatives since her departure from her home. The exception of two or three letters, nothing has been heard from her. The Oakland police have been unable to locate the young woman.

Woman Dog Fancier Ends Life With Drug

MRS. OLGA KIELHOFER, OAKLAND DOG FANCIER AND SPORTSWOMAN, WHO KILLED HERSELF BY SWALLOWING POISON THIS MORNING.

Swallowing a heavy dose of cyanide of potassium, which she had purchased to kill malformed puppies with, Mrs. Olga Kielhofer, one of the best known dog fanciers and sportswomen in California, famous as the owner of two of the most famous bulldogs ever raised in the West, ended her life early this morning. Her body was found by her husband, who, according to the police, returned to their rooms in the Casadilla Apartments after a quarrel to find her dead.

Mrs. Kielhofer had been in ill health for some time, according to her friends, and it is believed that her death was the result of a long illness. She was a well-known figure in the dog fancying world, and her death is a great loss to the community.

According to the police, Mrs. Kielhofer was found by her husband, who was returning home from work. He found her lying on the floor, and when he tried to revive her, he found that she was dead. The police were called, and they found a bottle of cyanide of potassium near her body.

Mysterious Details Behind Killing of Woman in Los Angeles

Two stanzas from Omar Khayyam, heavily underlined, and found in a book near the body of the murdered woman, are the meager clues on which the local detectives are searching for the murderer. The book was found in a rooming house in Los Angeles, and it was found that the woman had been reading it.

The police are now searching for the murderer. They have a list of suspects, and they are trying to find out who killed the woman. The woman was found dead in a rooming house in Los Angeles, and her death was a great mystery.

WOMEN ARRESTED BY PURITY SQUAD
Morals Campaign Started by Jailing and Fining of Six Girls.

The arrest of six women upon the streets of Oakland within the past 24 hours indicates that Chief of Police William F. Wood has undertaken the task of bettering moral conditions in the community, according to statements made at police headquarters. It is declared that women have been seen upon the streets violating the vagrancy statutes for many months, but that this condition is not to be permitted to continue.

The women have been naturally arrested in uniform. Several patrolmen have been detailed to special duty in the city by the chief of police. The women have been fined and jailed for violating the law, and the arrests have followed.

All the women have been released on bail, and the bail will be forfeited if they do not appear in court. The women have been fined and jailed for violating the law, and the arrests have followed.

CABINET TO ACT ON STRIKE

By Associated Press.
LONDON, July 19, 11:12 a. m.—Reports from the South Wales coal fields indicate no progress in the negotiations for a settlement of the strike, but efforts will be made at the cabinet meeting today to find some means of speedily solving the labor problem. It is generally believed in the mining districts, however, that no satisfactory way out of the present difficulties can be found unless the government takes over the mines and operates them during the war.

One of the first things the miners demand is the withdrawal of the proclamation which brings them under the provisions of the munitions bill. They resent the idea of working under coercion and insist they will not consent to it. It is known that representatives of the government who are conversant with the spirit of the miners take a gloomy view of the present situation, but if the proclamation is withdrawn and the government takes over the mines, it is possible the men may be prevailed upon to work for the war.

The body was removed to the morgue and an inquest will be held. Mrs. Kielhofer was a noted figure in the big kennel shows of the West. She was the owner of Khartoum, the famous bulldog, and had several other champions. She was a well-known figure in the dog fancying world, and her death is a great loss to the community.

MINERS MAY END STRIKE

By Associated Press.
LONDON, July 19, 2:30 p. m.—It is understood that new proposals have been advanced which are likely to constitute a basis on which both sides concerned in the South Wales coal strike will be able to arrange peace without loss of prestige. No detailed information has been given out, but there was another dramatic turn in the situation this afternoon as the result of a communication to the executive committee of the miners at Cardiff. The committee, which was in session when the communication was received, adjourned immediately and started for the office of Walter Runciman, president of the Board of Trade, this evening. It was learned that the proposals for ending the strike originated with the miners.

They were sent to work on their own terms, and the miners' leaders, who believe they will prove acceptable. BOTH SIDES TO YIELD. It is understood the plan contemplates the concession of the demands of the miners which, however, would not be embodied in any new agreement until the government has had ample time to consider the whole matter. The questions in dispute would then be referred to the munitions court, which would decide the guarding matters in difference between the ward of Mr. Runciman and the full demands. It is possible that Runciman himself, instead of the munitions court, may conduct the arbitration.

The proposed terms entail some slight concessions on both sides. There seems to be no doubt the cabinet had the proposal before it at today's session and the outcome of its communication to the cabinet meeting is accepted as indicating that the ministry ratified the suggested compromise, accepting the proposed way out. This will mean immediate return to work by the men and an undisturbed strike by the miners, whatever it may be.

Austrians to Attack
Along Isonzo Front
By Associated Press.
GENEVA, via Paris, July 19.—A dispatch from Laibach to the Tribune says that Archduke Eugene, commander-in-chief of the Austrian forces operating against the Italians, arrived at Gorizia yesterday, accompanied by General Danik, and distributed decorations.

The Austrians are reported to be preparing to take the offensive on the Isonzo front. The Italians, according to this dispatch, have made an advance of five miles and are now in possession of the town of Timova, from which point they are bombarding the railway communications with Gorizia. A number of supply trains have been destroyed.

Fighting on the heights of Venero, the altitude of which is 10,000 feet, has been severe, particularly around the Garibaldi-Hut. Some of the wounded were frozen before the Red Cross workers could get to them. Gorizia has been bombarded by the Italians from the north, and it is said to have suffered considerably from an attack by two Italian airplanes that dropped bombs on the fortifications.

War Summary

The Italian armored cruiser Giuseppe Garibaldi has been torpedoed and sunk in the Adriatic by an Austrian submarine, it is officially reported from Vienna. The destroyed warship had a complement of 550 men and was laid down seventeen years ago. The crew's fate is unmentioned.

News dispatched from Athens report hard fighting on the Gallipoli peninsula with the forces of the entente allied against the whole front. The attacks are said to have been successful, but there is no definite news as to the extent of the ground reported to have been gained.

Belated dispatches from the Russian front tell of the recent concentration of great 104-to-German forces on the 100-mile line between the Vistula and the Bug. It is here that severe pressure is now being put by Field Marshal von Mackensen upon the Russian forces in the great Tseretov move against the armies of the Grand Duke Nicholas, which has brought forth simultaneous attacks all along the front from the Baltic provinces to Bessarabia. Russia's army opposing General von Mackensen is declared to be one of the best she ever put into the field.

Paris reports two attacks by the Germans, both of which were repulsed. One of these was in the vicinity of Soezeh and another in the region of North Hubert, in the Ardennes. There was only outpost counters in Lorraine and artillery play on French trenches in Belgium. Inactivity prevailed along the remainder of the front.

The South Wales coal strike is believed in London to be on the verge of settlement. David Lloyd-George will go to the coal fields to see his influence with the men for a settlement.

partment in 30 days and make a complete report." The second ordinance would have the investigator to just one department. We originally decided that we wanted to look over both departments to effect economies, and to provide means by which we could better conditions.

"Do you think Miller is a big enough man to make an investigation or recommendations concerning any department," continued Baccus. "You know what he did about the quay wall. It was on his recommendation that the city built 200 feet of wall at a great expense that isn't any good to anybody."

"I thought that Miller made a minority report on that," interrupted Mayor Davis. "But one report."

"There was only one report," asserted Baccus, "and it was signed by Miller alone. That work was done in a minority report and it was a sign of his incompetence and—"

"Mr. Mayor," interposed Edwards, "can we have the ordinance read?" Commissioner Jackson asked for the floor and started to explain his position on the matter. He said: "We all realize, Mr. Baccus, that the former administration made a horrible botch in the matter of waterfront improvements. They expended $2,500,000 and a large percentage of it was wasted."

"That was on Miller's recommendation," Baccus retorted. "I tell you Miller sent in a minority report," said Jackson. "I would like to see it," answered Baccus. "Nobody has ever been able to get it," he said.

"When the new administration took charge," continued Jackson, "it was at first thought that in the interests of economy and efficiency we ought to chop off a lot of heads of high-priced officials who were not doing the city service. On a second consideration, however, it was deemed that it would be better to put in some experts to find out what was really the matter and to make recommendations. We put in Stuart MacMullen as one of these experts."

"But I don't class Miller as an expert at anything," said Baccus. "Who would you put in?" queried Edwards. "Not a man who has made a failure of everything he has done for the past 20 years," answered Baccus.

"We were elected on a policy of economy and retrenchment," Jackson went on. "The best way that we can work out economies is to get expert advice. We have to act on Miller's recommendations when they come in. It rests with this council just exactly what shall be done. It is quite probable that there will not be once change to be made in street department. If conditions are as Mr. Baccus says, the report will probably be favorable."

"I have told you I had 25 positions that I haven't filled," said Baccus. "My whole ambition has been to make a saving in my own department. I am as ready to fire a man when he is no good to the city as anybody else."

"We want to find out about that and to do that we have to employ experts," said Jackson. "I can give you information myself," said Baccus, "and you won't have to pay $300 a month for it."

"We are going to put this man on the waterfront and it will probably be a year before he gets through with that," said Jackson. "Every man you have made several reports yourself and we may be sufficiently familiar with the situation."

Commissioner Edwards wanted to know how it happened that the report had been withdrawn and not printed the legal time after it had been passed to print by the city council. Deputy City Clerk Frank Merritt explained that when another ordinance covering the same proposition had been presented, the city clerk had withdrawn the first one from publication to save on the printing bill. The city clerk was authorized to go ahead with the printing of the original and it will come up for final passage next Friday.

COUNCIL AGAIN SPLIT.
Another split occurred in the City Council this morning when Mayor John L. Davis voted with Commissioner W. J. Baccus in opposition to Commissioners F. F. Jackson and W. H. Edwards on the question of granting further time to saloon men for the purpose of paying up their license fees. Commissioner Anderson being absent, the vote stood 2-2.

The action was taken at the request of Souza & Souza, saloon men at 1721 Telegraph avenue, who ask that they be given an additional week in which to settle their financial difficulties before the City Council takes action on their liquor license.

The firm recently filed a petition in bankruptcy and this morning wanted additional time that an attorney may be made to dispose of the license. Had the council revoked the license it would have resulted in that much more loss to the saloon men.

"I don't see why we should extend this time any longer," said Commissioner Jackson. "This license was due on July 1st and now they want a week longer. If we grant that request, it will set a precedent for all future actions of this kind. I am opposed to extending the time any longer."

"Well, if this would benefit the creditors, wouldn't you favor the granting of the request?" asked Mayor Davis. "Will the city suffer any?"

"No," replied Jackson, "but it would put us on record as being lenient towards these men and would lay us open to the charge of wirepulling. This firm has now had eighteen days in which to do this and the limit under the law being five, I think they have had long enough time."

JURY TO DECIDE FATE OF 'COAST'

Proprietor of Tivoli Dance Hall
Denies He Has Broken
the Law.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—A jury will have an opportunity of passing upon the question as to whether or not the Harbor Coast will survive, as the result of a demand made in the police court this morning by Edward Martin, proprietor of the Tivoli dance hall, in a raid which the police instituted on Pacific street, Martin and a number of his cohorts were taken into custody.

There were six waiters and nearly two score girls in the roundup and all were charged with violation of the new rules of the police commission. Martin was booked for conducting a disorderly house and selling liquor without a license and his employees were charged with being inmates of a disorderly house.

The police declare that the situation had been passed squarely up to the court. Police Judge Sullivan, however, released the waiters and the girls, and their recognition and centered their attention on Martin.

Then Attorney Harry Stafford, the latter's counsel, promptly took the matter out of the judge's hands by demanding a jury trial for his clients. He declared that the charge of conducting a disorderly house must fail because the Tivoli could not be placed in that category.

The officers who made the raid say that a quantity of liquor, marked "near beer" was in reality the genuine article and on this they hope to prove their case against the proprietor. Judge Sullivan continued the hearing until tomorrow.

HEAR PLAN TO BUY SACRAMENTO ELECTRIC

SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—The State Railroad Commission this morning began a hearing on an application of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company to take over the capital stock of the West Sacramento Electric Company operating in low country. The former corporation desires to purchase the West Sacramento Electric Company which has been engaged in considerable litigation and which, according to the petitioners, cannot be refinanced. The application was made by the Pacific Gas and Electric and George F. Dietrich and H. W. Furlong. The West Sacramento Electric Company is capitalized for $100,000, the shares being held by the Mercantile Trust Company. It is said that the purchase price is $30,000. The Pacific Gas and Electric Company operates a street car system in Sacramento and its power lines are so placed that representatives claim that it can serve the patrons of the West Sacramento Company very economically.

MUST WAR DECIDE PACIFIC DOMINANCE?

CONGRESS IS PLAN FOR PEACE

Publicists in First Conference
Would Pacify Pacific
History.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—In order to avert the great war between East and West, steps must be found, according to Sidney L. Gulick, of Japan, for inducing the nations to return to China what has been taken from her. If the West forces China into aggressive militarism, and if China is compelled to seek safety and justice at the point of the bayonet, the future of the world is indeed ominous.

In this speech before the First Pacific Conference of the Asiatic Institute today, showing that the hope of China's future lay in her avoidance of further alien invasion, Dr. Gulick asserted that our fate is involved in the fate of China, and of Japan as well. He stated that not only our national welfare, but our national character through the long future is involved in our response to Asia's appeal to understand her situation, today and forever.

Reviewing the alleged course of the United States in violating its treaties with China and with Japan, he said that Dr. Gulick, defending Germany's invasion of Belgium on the ground of necessity, argued that the United States takes the same attitude toward treaties as does Germany. This is shown by the decision of the Supreme court, rendered by Justice Field, 1888, when he said that the anti-Chinese act of 1888 was not invalid because it contravened the treaty of 1880 and the supplemental treaty of 1888.

Dr. Gulick added: "If we maintain that the United States was justified in its disregard of our treaty with China, what right have we to condemn Germany for its disregard of the treaty with Belgium? The degree of the consequences indeed differ enormously, but are not the moral issues identical?"

Referring to the relations of this country with Japan he said that indefinite continuation of Japanese patience under treatment regarded as humiliation is not to be assumed; that if America desires to maintain the historic friendship with Japan and do justice we must first of all understand the real point of her contention.

"Japan is not demanding economic advantage or opportunity but human justice, respect of Japanese as men," he said. "We need a campaign of education and a new policy which seems to require several changes."

(1) "Congressional legislation giving adequate responsibility and authority to the Federal administration for the care and protection of aliens."

(2) "An immigration law that treats all races alike—the least that is friendly—and that should admit only so many immigrants as we can accommodate, in order to preserve our institutions and prevent economic disturbance."

(3) "Aid to Americanize those admitted."

(4) "Naturalization of those admitted when they reach the required standards of citizenship."

"More pertinent than our duties in our relations to Asia is what to do to put and keep ourselves right with the Orient. The United States has a right to respectability and opportunity in leading nations into a right attitude toward Japan and China."

SEES PACIFIC WAR.
That the sword will fall over the Pacific, and that the coming shift of the world's balance of power is certain to uncover the gauntlet that lies between the two civilizations represented in Asia and America, was declared by Frederick McCormick to be a world-wide belief indicated in a canvass of eminent private and confidential opinion which he had made previous to his arrival here to open the Asiatic Institute First Pacific Conference. Reviewing the situation in the Pacific in the light of recent events in Pacific history, especially the European war, he said:

"The wheel of fortune, including considerations of the probable outcome of America's unrestrained career of treaty-breaking in the Pacific, in which our moral conduct is checked, and of Germany in Belgium, has multiplied since the outbreak of the war. In the British Army Staff College, within the past few weeks, interest in the relations of Japan and the United States has been shown by general demand to be considered second in importance only to those between the countries at war in Europe."

"The violation of treaties in the Pacific has cut the United States off from any voice in the future of continental East Asia and of nations like China and Japan, in whose fate our own is involved. Natural development of the United States in the Pacific has been arrested by treaty-violation, and lack of policy in international and maritime affairs. The European war has changed the relations of this country to Japan and China. With the opening of the canal, the control of Pacific commerce and communication has

Mexico Leader Brings Bride General Madero Welcomed

SENORA MADERO, WHOSE MARRIAGE IN SOUTH WAS CULMINATION OF WAR-TIME ROMANCE.

General Julio Madero, brother of the assassinated president of Mexico, arrived in the bay cities today, a double prisoner of affection, General Villa, but he is thrall to the leader of all factions, Dan Cupid. General Madero is here with his bride, General Villa's daughter, Senora Madero, who was promptly made a prisoner of war, but later was released on parole. The terms of his parole would not permit of his fighting on the battlefield. He decided to be married. Senora Garcia was of the same opinion. The journey to Los Angeles and the wedding ceremony followed.

In spite of the internal wars which have torn his country for the past few years, Madero will make his wife a wealthy woman, as he still retains title to wide estates in Coahuila. The Madero family seems to have been successful in keeping in favor with the various factions, with the result that their estates have not yet been confiscated by anybody.

Local Mexicans will entertain the newly wedded couple during their stay in the bay cities.

and there we were fighting people without modern military equipments in a country without roads.

LEARN, THEN TALK.
"As to the question about war accompanying the progress of nations situated on the Atlantic, it seems to me probable that the issue of the present war should be known, before a discussion of the subject would be profitable. I am one of those who believe it possible that abolition of such war as is now going on may result from the present horrors. I further believe that a league of strong naval powers to preserve the freedom of the seas may result from this war. Either of these favorable results would have immediate application to all the present Pacific problems. If, on the other hand, a premature peace in Europe leaves that continent to continued competitive armaments and the inevitable ferocious warfare, the chances that Asia will have any better fate will be small indeed."

The sessions of the conference are held as memorials to the late William Woodville Rockhill, the only Asian Statesman-Orientalist America has produced, and his senior the late Henry Willard Deinson, greatest of foreign advisors to East Asia. The object of the conference is to determine the basis for a proposed congress of the Pacific. The idea back of it is whether history is to see repeated in the Pacific evils such as make up a large part of the records of man in the Atlantic, and the possibility of mutual co-operation of nations of the Pacific area for common ends. Speakers and those represented at the conference include William Jennings Bryan, Sidney L. Gulick, David Starr Jordan, James B. Bullitt, Charles W. Eliot, David N. Allen, Mabel T. Borden, Austin Cunningham, Professor Durand, H. Morse Stephens, Senator H. Cabot Lodge, Frederick McCormick and others. Telegrams and letters were read from Viscount Okuma, Friedrich Hirsh, Kai-fu Shah, and other public men interested in the objects of the conference.

William Jennings Bryan's failure to appear at the appointed hour caused a number of people to rise and march out of the building, as if rehearsing a drill. Mr. Bryan failed to appear because the train bearing him from the south was several hours late. He wrote that he could not reach the Panama-Pacific Exposition, where the meeting was held, before noon. The large audience hastened with good attention to Frederick McCormick, secretary of the Asiatic Institute, but when the chairman attempted to introduce second speaker cries of "Bryan! Bryan!" drowned his voice.

OLD MAN SLAIN; BODY HUNG ADVERSARY IN QUARREL IS ARRESTED

Youthful Rival Confesses Blow
But Denies Killing
Other.

Mrs. Elizabeth McLaughlin of San Francisco will be closely questioned by Deputy District Attorney W. H. Smith and deputy sheriffs today regarding the circumstances of the murder of aged Manuel S. Bettencourt in Hayward yesterday. That murder either intentional or accidental was done in the firm belief of the authorities today as the result of their preliminary investigations into the case.

It was Mrs. McLaughlin, the deputy sheriff says, who waited at the roadside of the orchard while Walter Haynes, under arrest in the county jail today on suspicion of the murder, went into the orchard to see Bettencourt.

A short time after the body of the aged man was found hanging to the limb of an apple tree Haynes was seen in two saloons in Hayward, drinking. He was arrested in the saloon of J. Ramos by Constable W. J. Ramage.

After his arrest and in the county jail today Haynes refused to discuss the case other than to reiterate his story told to the authorities yesterday, which was to the effect that Bettencourt had attacked him with a pitchfork and that he had knocked him down in retaliation.

RELATIVE OF JUIILLARD.
Haynes who is the brother of Mrs. L. W. Juillard, wife of former Senator Juillard of Santa Rosa and owner of the ranch, went to the ranch yesterday, accompanied by Mrs. Elizabeth McLaughlin, who was spending the day with him and his wife. He left the conveyance in which they were riding at the roadside, saying that he was going to an orchard in the hills near the ranch.

Mrs. McLaughlin to the railroad station. Albert Vierra, a 14-year-old boy, later went to the orchard. He had seen Haynes dragging Bettencourt through the orchard. The arrest of Haynes followed.

At the county jail the prisoner maintained his innocence, declaring that Bettencourt had attacked him with a pitchfork and that he had knocked him down in self-defense. The body of the aged man was found hanging from a limb of an orchard tree, his feet just off the ground. Beneath the tree was a whisky bottle nearly empty.

An autopsy performed by Doctors DePuy and Tinsley proved that Bettencourt died before his body was strung up. Bettencourt was 67 years of age and a small man. Haynes is 45 and of powerful build.

Bettencourt had taken the contract to plant the orchard on old shares and Haynes was looking after the interests of his sister, Mrs. Juillard, who had gone to Santa Rosa yesterday.

It is the theory of the authorities that Haynes quarreled with Bettencourt over the picking of the fruit, struck him and had underestimated the blow. The testimony of young Vierra will be one of the important pieces of evidence in the case.

TRAIN KILLS MAN.
REDDING, July 19.—William Knight, aged 51, was struck by a passenger train at Middle Creek yesterday and killed. Knight was deaf. He did not hear the train approaching behind him as he walked to the engine. The engineer gave ample warning and expected Knight to get out of the way.

PLEADS FORCE OF MORALITY NEW PURITY CAMPAIGN MOTHERS' HELP IS ENLISTED

SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—Addressing delegates to the ninth International Purity Congress today Clifford C. Comstock, of the American bureau of moral education, appointed by President Wilson as American delegate to the congress, pleaded a new purity plan.

"The campaign against the social evil has spread so rapidly and widely that the local and national groups engaged in it are mostly unaware of what a diverse world-wide movement they constitute," said Mr. Comstock. "Each seems bent upon some pet solution of the problem. Some insist the solution must be medical and psychopathic. Others say that laws and police only are efficient in the matter. Still others put their whole faith in economic education and social hygiene."

"While all these are necessary and helpful, the supreme appeal must be greater than all these. It must be the appeal of morality—moral education."

"Therefore, in this great gathering of the ninth International Purity Congress, I wish to tell of a new plan for this purity appeal."

In the past, said Mr. Comstock, the school teacher, the doctor, the lawyer and the minister. Our new plan is to bring the facts before the great masses of the people, the farmer, the business man and the laborer. The message of purity, therefore, is not only preached today from the pulpit, but likewise from the Chautauqua and lecture platform and in club rooms and the auditoriums of great commerce associations.

"People are awakening to their civic and moral responsibility as never before. This fact is evidenced in no greater degree anywhere than in Chicago, where the new purity plan has taken root and grown."

CHICAGO CLEAN CITY.
"In my opinion Chicago is today morally the cleanest metropolitan city in the world. And what has made it so? An aroused public sentiment—a quickened moral conscience—a deeper and truer conviction concerning the responsibility of citizenship."

A plea for a revival of the lost art of motherhood, and a near-miss between Anthony Comstock, the N. Y. purity apostle, and William C. Hall, a medical student, were the big highlights in yesterday's session, when the Comstock affair was still discussed interestingly.

Comstock had been telling of his work in New York when the medical student, endeavoring to know if getting literature by a subterfuge was justifiable. He referred to an act of Comstock's in gaining evidence.

"The question is very important," answered the New York purity apostle. "Sergeants at arms threatened Hall with arrest."

"And do you think you are right in stamping out the works of Kraft Ebing and Havelock Ellis, or are you assuming that to those of pure minds books on sex are rotten and dangerous?"

An uproar followed, and finally after Hall, and Leon Mahomed, who was with him, were threatened with arrest, peace was restored.

That motherhood in the United States is a lost art, and that unless this is corrected the fate of Babylon and Rome awaits America, was the declaration of Mrs. Catherine Booth Clifton, daughter of the founder of the Salvation Army, who declared that false ideals are to blame for the condition.

"Woman's neglect of her true vocation of motherhood bears bitter fruit for the white slave traffic," said the speaker, "and is filling our reformatories with ruined lives."

"Our false ideals are shown in the women who say that to bear children would make them less intellectual or spiritual and on these grounds refuse their duty."

President Steadwell discussed vice in San Francisco, which, he declared, was not so free as he thought when he invited the convention to the Exposition. The evening session was given over to three addresses on the white slave traffic, the speakers including A. Bruce Bielaski, chief of the bureau of investigation of the Department of Justice at Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett of Alexandria, president of the National Council of women and employs of the Immigration Service; and Rev. John G. Shearer, of Toronto, chairman of the national committee for the suppression of the white slave traffic in Canada.

Bielaski, in speaking of the successes and failures of the government in its endeavor to combat the white slave act, asserted that the violations of the act are decreasing since the public has begun to realize how seriously the government is prosecuting offenders.

"Human nature is constantly changing, giving people new attitudes toward certain things," he said.

FORGET PAST, IS WOMAN'S PLEA

Story of Bunker Hill Means War Spirit, She Asserts.

"I want to preach against this reverence of the past. We should do away in our public schools with the Mayflower, the war of '76 and such things. Teach the children idealistic views of the future."

"There is far too much gazing upon the statues of dead statesmen."

"We have accepted institutions without finding out all about them. We must now make tradition worth while."

"Patriotism should be for the moral ethics of the country and for its constructive influence."

Mrs. William Thomas of New York, one of the delegates to the last International Peace Congress at The Hague tribunal, made the above utterances in an address in Starr King Hall last evening, at a meeting held under the auspices of the local Socialist branch. This meeting was in keeping with an order sent out by the national Socialist party, which called for Socialist meetings throughout the United States last night to protest against "war and capitalist control."

"Since this terrible war has happened, people the world over are beginning to do some deep thinking because for the first time in the history of the world a universal issue is before the public. The trouble is that we have been reverencing institutions more than the people behind them. We talk about the government with a capital 'G.' In other words, there has been too much gazing upon the statues of dead statesmen. The people are growing self-conscious now and are beginning to realize things. We have accepted institutions without finding out about them. We must now make tradition worth while. Our statesmen look upon our government as an institution. They don't put any life in it. Civilization is control. Every step in control is a step toward civilization. Intervention is the control of material forces of nature by the mind of man. What we want now is constructive invention. It appears as if what a man is now inventing is mostly along destructive lines."

"Human nature is constantly changing, giving people new attitudes toward certain things," she said.

Oaks, in First Division, Get Big Chance This Week Two Leaders Will Cut Each Other's Throat While We Tackle Vernon

(By BULLY FITZ.)

There is a big chance for the first time since the opening week of the season. It would appear that the Oaks have a good chance to win the first division. The Oaks have been able to come from the cellar to third place within ten days.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

The Merchants playing in great form defeated San Pablo Sunday. The Oaks have been able to come from the cellar to third place within ten days.

Blankenship Sweet on Him

Here's big Charley Schmutz, the German heaver, who beat the Oaks last week in his first start since joining the Salt Lake Bees. Though the Oaks last week in his first start since joining the Salt Lake Bees. Though the Oaks last week in his first start since joining the Salt Lake Bees.

HE WAS QUALIFIED. We met up with a man the other day who is probably the leading example of sport world pessimism.

Manaux is the son of a wealthy Pittsburgher and a woman manufacturer. The elder Manaux is a base ball buff and encouraged his son to take up the game. As a kid the youngster was crude and very much of the "big game" type.

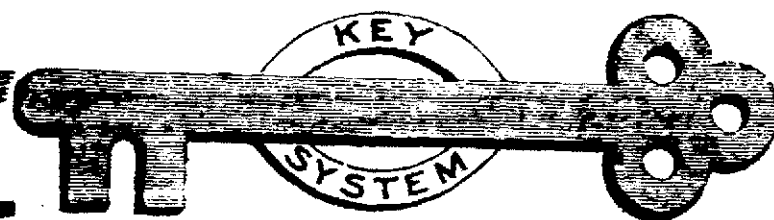

ANYHOW, THEY WIN. I asked a White Sox base ball fan: "Who made the team this year?" "Oh, that's a cinch," he answered me. "His name is Jack Fournier."

NEW SUIT HELPS. At Manaux's dress this season may be a law to an incident that occurred in Cincinnati on opening day. There were not enough new suits to go around and the result was that the old suits were worn.

ROTARIANS BEGIN SESSION TODAY

The Oakland Club Formulates Plans to Entertain Visiting Clubmen.

Today marked the beginning of a busy three days for committees and officials of the Oakland Rotary Club, when final arrangements for the reception of the delegates to the great Rotarian convention that opened in San Francisco today were started. Thirty-five hundred delegates, from all parts of the country now in session across the bay, will journey to Oakland Thursday for their official "Oakland day," when, after a session at the auditorium, they will be shown the city, taken for an auto ride, will be entertained at luncheon and enjoy other special features now being outlined.

President V. O. Lawrence and Secretary A. T. Gidding today called for reports from the committees, that any unfinished detail may be attended to at once.

The Rotarian convention is the most important in the entire history of the order, according to members of the organization and the attendance has broken all records. The convention was called to order at 9 o'clock this morning in the San Francisco Civic Auditorium by President C. H. Victor of the San Francisco Rotary Club and general sessions continued until 2 o'clock, when trade and business sections convened.

The women guests of the convention this afternoon enjoyed an auto ride about San Francisco as guests of the San Francisco Club and tonight a dinner will be held at the St. Francis, followed by a trip to the exposition.

Tomorrow will be "Rotary day" at the exposition, when a silver loving cup will be presented to the section having the largest registration at the big convention. A grand ball will be given at the St. Francis in honor of President and Mrs. Mulholland of the International Rotarian organization.

Several matters of extreme importance are slated for early discussion at the convention. One of the first of these will be the matter of changing the constitution.

YELLOW STRIPE IS PRISON BRAND

Sing Sing Convicts to Punish Fellow Prisoners With Badges.

By Associated Press.
OSSINING, N. Y., July 19.—Members of the Mutual Welfare League, the self-rule organization of the inmates of Sing Sing prison, have adopted a novel method of inflicting punishment for attempts to escape from prison or violation of prison rules.

Suspension from the privileges of the league is the basis of the punishment. Offenders who are suspended for five days or more will be compelled to wear a yellow stripe as large as an orange on the breast of their shirt.

Those suspended for ten days or more must wear not only the yellow stripe, but a yellow stripe down the middle of the back. In case of suspension for twenty days, yellow stripes on the trousers legs must be worn. The heads of all offenders suspended for thirty days will be shaved and in addition they must wear the yellow stripes.

Prisoners are so afraid of the stripes that the league originated with the prisoners and was based on the feeling that if a man offends against the rules he shows the yellow inside himself and they devised this plan to show the same color on his uniform.

Two prisoners found intoxicated from drinking a mixture of alcohol and water will be the first to wear the yellow stripes.

MORGAN AIDE ARRIVES FROM TRIP TO EUROPE

NEW YORK, July 19.—Henry P. Davison of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Company was among the 515 passengers who arrived here last night on the American liner New York from Liverpool. He spent two months in England.

Six sons of the Maharajah of Kohlapur, who are on their way from England to Bombay, also were on the liner. They will spend some time at the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

Dependable Fresh Time of the Chinese navy, accompanied by fifteen Chinese naval cadets, who have been studying in England and who will spend two years in the United States, also arrived.

THAW JURY DODGED QUESTION OF SANITY

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 19.—David Robinson, foreman of the jury which declared Harry K. Thaw sane, today dodged the question of sanity.

Robinson, in a statement to five newspaper correspondents, declared that Thaw, following which some highly interesting facts were brought out, the jury had three times been declared insane, and reached their verdict practically on the basis of the "supposition" law.

Speaking for himself alone, Robinson said: "I knew all about the case before I had read about it in the newspapers."

"Then you went into the jury box with your mind made up that Thaw was sane?" he was asked.
"I was willing to hear the testimony and see what they had to offer," was the reply.

UTILITIES LEAGUE TO TALK DISTRICT PLAN

Plans for creating public utilities districts as provided for by state law will be discussed at a meeting of the Public Utilities League of Alameda county, which will be held in the Blake Block at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening. This is to be a special meeting and all improvement clubs have been invited to attend.

KILLS JAPANESE TO STILL STORY

Compromising Photo Drives White Woman to Desperate Act.

LOS ANGELES, July 19.—A photograph of a beautiful white woman and a former Japanese actor, which he carried in a secret pocket in his vest, caused Mrs. George Smith to shoot and kill George Smith in her home at 1700 West 10th street.

WAR SONS RALLY AT CALL OF FLAG

The Descendants of Heroes Freshen Memories of Valley Forge.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 19.—From every state, from Hawaii and the Philippines, delegates to the Twenty-sixth annual convention of the Society of the Sons of the American Revolution assembled here today representing four hundred delegates.

The last annual participants of which there was record died in 1869 and it is estimated that not more than thirty some Revolutionary soldiers are living now, but each year their descendants meet to freshen the memories of Valley Forge and Yorktown and sow seeds of patriotism in the hearts of young Americans.

President General R. C. Ballard, Thornton of Louisville, Ky., in his opening address emphasized the need of a Hall of Archives at Washington. The records of the revolution, as well as other government documents, he said, are stored in garrets, cellars and other undesirable places exposed to deterioration and destruction and inaccessible even to officials of the government.

"We don't know what they show as to the history of our country," he declared.

WOULD HOUSE RECORDS.
A committee of the Sons of the Revolution will work during the coming session of Congress at Washington with the American Historical Association to get appropriations for a permanent hall of records.

The imperfectly known details of the adoption and signing of the Declaration of Independence were recalled at length in the report of the secretary general. While the historic document was accepted by the committee of the whole, reported to the Congress and adopted on July 4, 1776, it appeared from the researches reflected in the secretary general's report that this action was not then unanimous.

The New York assembly did not approve until June 15, and it was not until August 2 that it was engrossed and signed by the members present and as late as January 18, 1877 one member of the Continental Congress had not yet affixed his signature. One fourth of the members were not present on July 4, 1776, and seven of those who later signed were not members of the Congress on that memorable day.

The original document, much faded, reposes in an airtight, lightproof compartment in the State Department library in Washington. A fac-simile is on exhibition.

BOYS ARE ENROLLED.

Work of organizing the Washington Guard, an auxiliary in which are enrolled boys of revolutionary descent under 21 years old, was detailed by the secretary general. The organization, not essentially a military body, aims to train boys in the fundamental principles of national government and self protection.

Boys of nine years and under are enrolled as junior guardsmen; of ten to fourteen as guardsmen and of 15 to 21 years as senior guardsmen. The boys are taught to foster true patriotism and extend the institutions of American freedom. As they become of age they are eligible for enrollment in the parent society.

MATCH IS DEFECTIVE; WOMAN DIES OF GAS

SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—Miss Sophie Sederlein of 955 Pine street was found dying in her apartments this morning as the result of accidental asphyxiation by gas and succumbed before a physician could be summoned. She had been staying with her sister, Mrs. Harry Jacobs. The latter detected the odor of gas at an early hour and hurrying into Miss Sederlein's apartment found her on the floor in front of a small gas heater. It was evident that she had arisen in the night intending to get some hot water and had turned on the gas without seeing that a match applied to it had not caught. It is supposed that she fell unconscious while waiting for the water to heat. She was 50 years old.

15,000 PERSONS SEE FIRE AT EXPOSITION

SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—More than 15,000 sightseers at the Panama-Pacific Exposition watched flames that began at 7:30 last night.

Smoke and flames developed in the storeroom at Donald Murray of the information bureau. Murray ran outside and notified a guard. The latter turned in an alarm that brought all the fire department to the press building.

Newspaper men in the building manned a two-inch emergency fire hose in the meantime and were playing it on the flames when the fire department arrived. Incurred cuts and lacerations about the hands that were treated at the emergency hospital on the premises.

The fire is supposed to have been started by defective electric wiring.

CHARGES ARE SCOUTED BY PERUVIAN CONSUL

SEATTLE, Wash., July 19.—The complaint by members of the crew of the Peruvian bark Marte, which recently arrived here from Callao, Peru, that they were being ill treated and held prisoners on shipboard here, is characterized as absurd by P. A. Bartlett, Peruvian consul to Seattle.

"The note containing the complaint was originally addressed to the port commission, which handed it to the United States reporting commissioner, who in turn handed it on to me," he said. "Any one who saw it could tell that it had been written by some smart old sailor who thought he could write. The charges are absurd. The men can come ashore if they want to."

DE FREMERY HIKERS PLAN OUTING SERIES

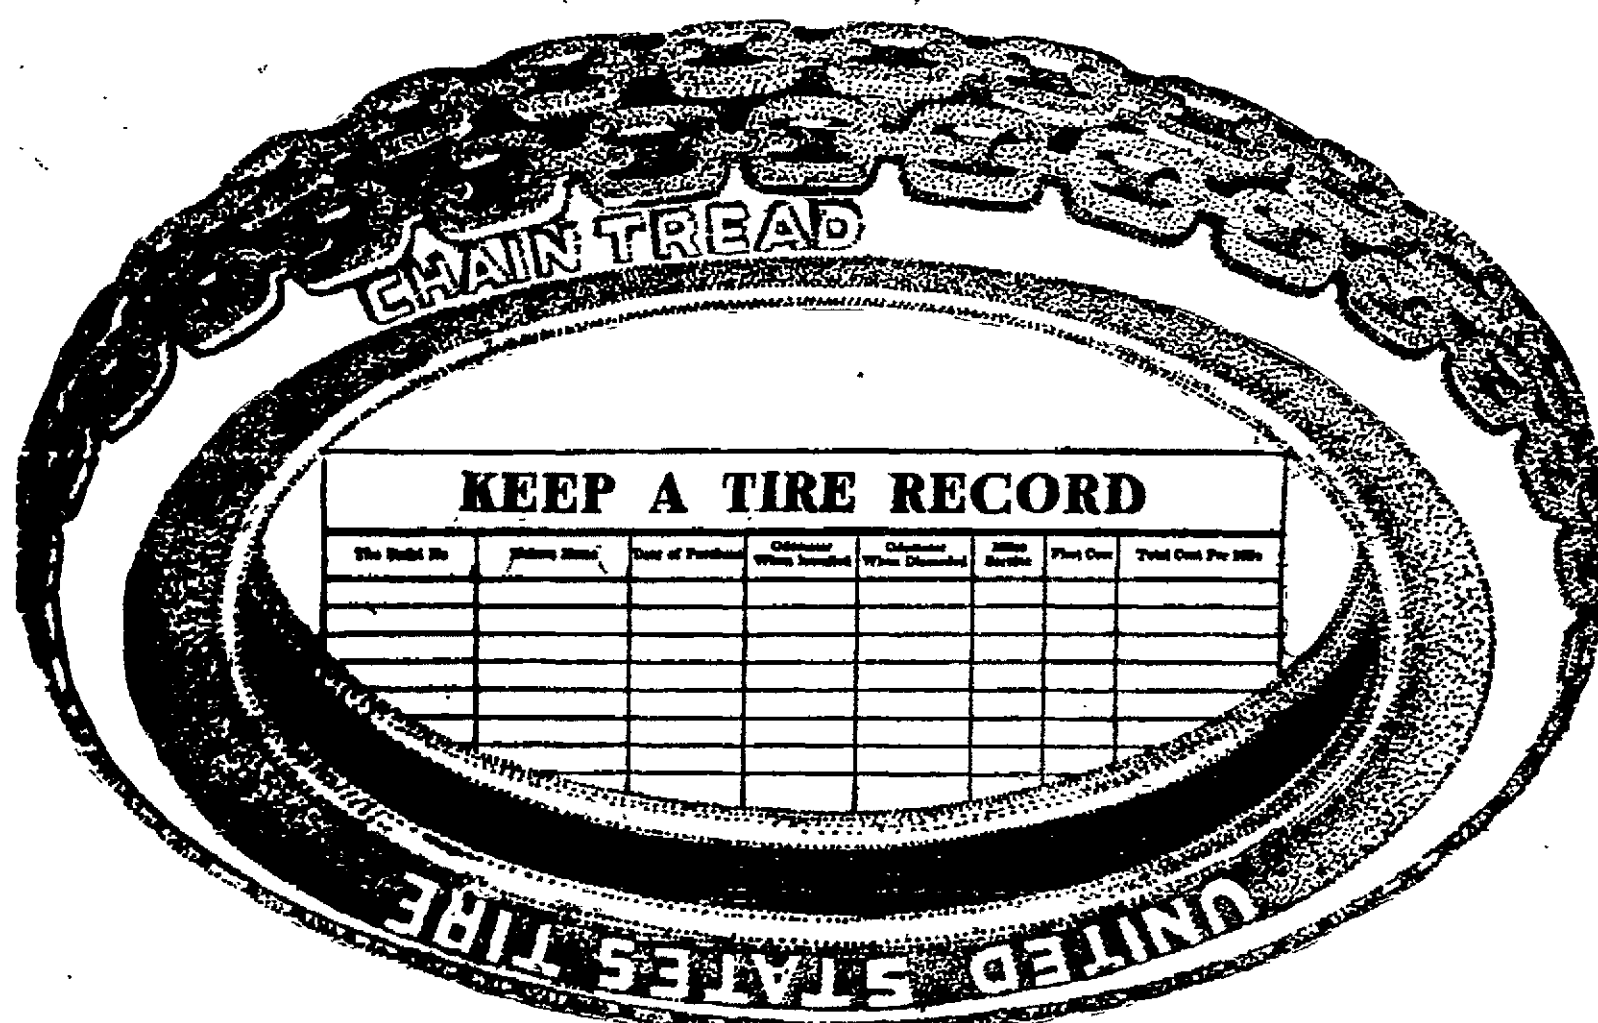

The de Fremery Hiking Club was organized Saturday, when the boys of the park took an extended tramp over the hills east of Berkeley. The boys were accompanied by Supervisor F. W. Brown.

They have planned a series of outings before the opening of the fall semester. The club is at present composed of the following named: Maurice Bellor, William Sullivan, Bert Smith, John Corcoran, Carson Smith, Albert Pihlaupt, Jack Gordon, Albert Penault, Leon Williamson, Walter Lockner and George Lockner.

Masked Men Rob Shop of $600 and Jewels

By Associated Press.
SALINAS, July 19.—Three masked men entered the salaried quarters of a local merchant, about midnight, and after a struggle, secured $600 and a large quantity of jewelry. The robbery occurred in the center of the business district.

Bryan at Hermosa Resting After Fair

By Associated Press.
HERMOSA BEACH, Cal., July 19.—William J. Bryan, former secretary of State, returned here last night after spending several days at the exposition at San Diego. Mr. Bryan plans to rest for a few days at the home of his son, Mr. J. W. Bryan, at Hermosa Beach, where he addressed a large crowd in the auditorium.

FURNITURE TIE-UP Removal Plans Broken—

All our plans for moving into new quarters have gone awry. The landlords will not be in position to give us our new building within any reasonable length of time. To cap the climax until we can arrange for additional warehouse room.

WE'RE STOCKED WITH CARLOADS OF NEW FURNITURE, CARPETS AND RUGS

bought for the expected new location. This lot of goods is crowding us for room. To gain extra space we are making on any piece or set of Furniture in the house, including all the new stock. This means deeper price cuts than at any time during our recent Removal Sale.
